

Magnetic Foreign Body Remover Cleaning Instructions

Because Magnetic Foreign Body Removers come into contact with the cornea and tear film, they must be properly disinfected to prevent cross-infection with HIV and other infectious pathogens. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommends that all eye contact devices be disinfected by a 5-10 minute soak in one of following disinfectants: 3% hydrogen peroxide, or 70% isopropyl alcohol.

Rev01/06

Gulden Ophthalmics

225 Cadwalader Avenue, Elkins Park, PA 19027
(800) 659-2250 Fax (215) 884-0418 e-mail: info@guldenophthalmics.com
www.guldenophthalmics.com

Magnetic Foreign Body Remover Cleaning Instructions

Because Magnetic Foreign Body Removers come into contact with the cornea and tear film, they must be properly disinfected to prevent cross-infection with HIV and other infectious pathogens. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommends that all eye contact devices be disinfected by a 5-10 minute soak in one of following disinfectants: 3% hydrogen peroxide, or 70% isopropyl alcohol.

Rev01/06

Gulden Ophthalmics

225 Cadwalader Avenue, Elkins Park, PA 19027
(800) 659-2250 Fax (215) 884-0418 e-mail: info@guldenophthalmics.com
www.guldenophthalmics.com

Magnetic Foreign Body Remover Cleaning Instructions

Because Magnetic Foreign Body Removers come into contact with the cornea and tear film, they must be properly disinfected to prevent cross-infection with HIV and other infectious pathogens. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommends that all eye contact devices be disinfected by a 5-10 minute soak in one of following disinfectants: 3% hydrogen peroxide, or 70% isopropyl alcohol.

Rev01/06

Gulden Ophthalmics

225 Cadwalader Avenue, Elkins Park, PA 19027
(800) 659-2250 Fax (215) 884-0418 e-mail: info@guldenophthalmics.com
www.guldenophthalmics.com

Magnetic Foreign Body Remover Cleaning Instructions

Because Magnetic Foreign Body Removers come into contact with the cornea and tear film, they must be properly disinfected to prevent cross-infection with HIV and other infectious pathogens. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommends that all eye contact devices be disinfected by a 5-10 minute soak in one of following disinfectants: 3% hydrogen peroxide, or 70% isopropyl alcohol.

Rev01/06

Gulden Ophthalmics

225 Cadwalader Avenue, Elkins Park, PA 19027
(800) 659-2250 Fax (215) 884-0418 e-mail: info@guldenophthalmics.com
www.guldenophthalmics.com

Magnetic Foreign Body Remover Cleaning Instructions

Because Magnetic Foreign Body Removers come into contact with the cornea and tear film, they must be properly disinfected to prevent cross-infection with HIV and other infectious pathogens. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommends that all eye contact devices be disinfected by a 5-10 minute soak in one of following disinfectants: 3% hydrogen peroxide, or 70% isopropyl alcohol.

Rev01/06

Gulden Ophthalmics

225 Cadwalader Avenue, Elkins Park, PA 19027
(800) 659-2250 Fax (215) 884-0418 e-mail: info@guldenophthalmics.com
www.guldenophthalmics.com

Magnetic Foreign Body Remover Cleaning Instructions

Because Magnetic Foreign Body Removers come into contact with the cornea and tear film, they must be properly disinfected to prevent cross-infection with HIV and other infectious pathogens. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommends that all eye contact devices be disinfected by a 5-10 minute soak in one of following disinfectants: 3% hydrogen peroxide, or 70% isopropyl alcohol.

Rev01/06

Gulden Ophthalmics

225 Cadwalader Avenue, Elkins Park, PA 19027
(800) 659-2250 Fax (215) 884-0418 e-mail: info@guldenophthalmics.com
www.guldenophthalmics.com